This is a fun, simple puzzle game. The difficulty ramps up considerably towards the end though..

\u4e0d\u5b8c\u7f8e\u0c\u4f46\u503c\u5f97\u4e00\u73a9\u01. 192 kbps CBR MP3. If it was FLAC (or at least 320 kbps) I would leave a positive.. it so difficult. just like dark souls. Well, this game is awesome :). this game has not any supply drops or eko jumps no weapon variants or eko zombies dios game socks clock. Beautiful bird and fun to fly, imo exceed sabre in every way (service ceiling, climb rate, cannon caliber and its look are superb) however nothing to play with yet in 2.2 and with deferred shading on there are flashy glitchy textures, hopefully it would be fixed in the upcoming 2.5. A good twist on the original game very simple but effective. Got bored pretty fast should add like obstacle 7/10

I was going to recommend this game. Until I realized I was permanently stuck on level 1. And I couldn't equip anything besides a sword. Even at level 1.

And there was a weird crinckly sound that accompanied the music.

Not really worth it.

Edit: Ok, thanks to a very nice person's comment (thanks Kloodge) I found out how to level up. I can now recommend this game. It's a fun hack and slash.. I have only played so far to upgrade my car to the 20k car and i do not think i can play further as this game keeps you on a loop of 4 tracks per group of speed class and at the end of the 3rd round you will have a boss round which you will have to beat on a one to one race.

Each set of 4 tracks are different but set in the same city, even if they say your racing in other parts of the city the tracks look close to one other.

The best car you can get or hovercar costs about $150 and by the time that your even on the 10k money side of things its not worth your time as you have to keep racing the same 3 to 4 tracks and constantly have to tell the game to reset race scores on tracks that you have raced on before to get more money or at least earn money on different tracks just to very it up.

I am uninstalling the game, What a shame nice premis for a game but The cost to get to the best car out of the min tracks to race is not worth the trouble you go to.. the game is a bit glitching, not responding. but im enjoying the time it is working... well though out game!. Just a Cleric is a side-scroller with some RPG elements, such as levelling up, buying new equipment, and upgrading your gear with gold and resources. It's pretty good, though at times I found it a little frustrating. I think it's difficult at times, but I'm old now and my reflexes aren't what they once were, so maybe it's just me. I haven't been able to finish it yet.

The thing that makes this game stand out, and the reason I'm writing this review, is the music. There are 41 different songs in the game. The music is played with actual instruments by in-game group The Booger Myers Band, and almost every track has vocals, which is something that I normally don't like in a video game but which quickly grew on me. The "In Town" song, for example, goes "town, in town, you're in town" in a slightly droning voice. Your inventory is accompanied by the "Subscreen" song. "You're in the subscreen" you will be told, over and over. "Buy The Stuff!" plays in the town shop.

I will admit, at first I was a little put off. I guess it was sort of amusing, but once I got to the first boss and heard "Giant Cricket", I knew I was experiencing something special. It's one of the few games that I'm glad I got the soundtrack to.

Another stand out is "Surfin Cleric", which I will sometimes play on a loop when I'm doing something else. I don't even get sick of it until I've heard it 5 or 6 times. I particularly enjoyed the part of the game where you hear it the first time.

The only thing that gets to me is when I'm dying over and over and I have to listen to the first few seconds of "You Died!", because you can't skip it straight away. There's also some voice acting in the introduction that I wish I could skip, but those are the only things that I don't really like.

So Just a Cleric. It's a pretty good game with an above average soundtrack. You should probably buy it. I mean, if you want edit: I forgot to mention that Del_Duio, the developer, has written several guides and seems to be active on the related message boards, listening to feedback. So that's commendable!. this Game is Crap. Who need no mans sky when you can play this fly through space and collect resources.(just wish he would updae it mor

New Windows update:

The ScummVM engine has been updated from 1.7.0 to 2.0.0, which should fix Windows 10 full-screen and other compatibility issues.

Also, Cloud Save Support has been added. Take your saves anywhere and play on any machine. Windows, MacOS or GNU/Linux!

Please let us know if you were experiencing problems with the game in the past, if they have been resolved in this build.
